

10,000 MEN ARE OUT.

Nearly the Whole Hazelton Region on Strike.

OVERAWED BY THE SOLDIERS.

The Foreigners Keeping Quiet—The Cavalrymen Had Their Long Ride to Eckley For Nothing, as There Was No Disturbance—Another Funeral.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 15.—Despite a variety of alarming rumors and a movement by a body of miners which looked formidable no serious disturbance has occurred in the strike region. Matters still wear such an uncertain aspect, however, that General Gobin declares that the removal of the troops or of any portion of them has not been contemplated. The strike itself is spreading with great rapidity. Exact estimates of the number of men who have quit work are hard to obtain, but conservative figures place it at close to 10,000, with indications that within a short time every colliery of importance in the region will be idle. Although some disposition has been shown by small bodies of strikers in the outlying districts to make demonstrations, they have been of a rather feeble character, and the great majority of the men are docile.

These mines are now idle: Cox & Bros. & Co., Eckley, Beaver Meadow and Onida, about 2,000 men; Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company's Honeybrook and Audenreid mines, about 2,500; Frank Pardee's Cranberry and Crystal Ridge, 1,100; Lehigh Valley Coal company, Hazle mines, Yorktown, Jeansville and Audenreid, 3,000; Calvin Pardee & Co.'s Lattimer and Harwood, 2,000. The men at Cox's Stockton mines have expressed their intention of joining the strike. Concerning the Drifton mine of the same company, one of the firm said they understood the men were going out. The collieries still working are the Derringer, Tomhicken and Shepton of the Cox company; Weston, Dodson & Co.'s Beaverbrook, and J. S. Wentz's Silverbrook mine.

The City Troop of Philadelphia, which was dispatched to the scene of the reported outbreak at Eckley, found nothing for it to do when it reached that place. Several hundred miners from Buck mountain had already marched on the Eckley mines and brought out the men there. A few of the men who showed a disposition to continue work were roughly handled, and the mine superintendent, fearing trouble, wired to General Gobin for troops. He also sent word to Drifton and 70 deputies from that place and Roan Junction, nearby, were sent over. They kept themselves under cover at Eckley, however, awaiting developments. Nothing further happened, the men at Eckley joining the ranks of the strikers. Meanwhile the cavalry troop was sent by General Gobin and had a wearisome march over the mountains only to find everything at Eckley peaceful.

Another annoying story came to brigade headquarters by telephone. It was to the effect that a gang of miners from Drifton had marched on colliery No. 5, at Jeddo, with the expressed intention of bringing the men out. Upon reaching the colliery John Markle, the superintendent, met them and after a conference with a committee of the miners, succeeded in turning them off without trouble.

At Lattimer a largely attended and decisive meeting of strikers was held to receive the answer of the company to their demands. With a large body of strikers gathered in the open space before the company's store, Superintendent Blake appeared at the door and gave them their answer. It was short and to the point and was met with action equally as decisive. The demands had been formulated as follows:

"We desire and wish the privilege of buying our provisions where we think proper, instead of being forced to do so at the company's store; we want a 20 per cent advance on all classes of labor; we demand the dismissal of all parties who took part on last Friday, Sept. 10, in the shooting affray; we demand that all classes of labor be paid the same for rock work as for coal on idle days; we demand that no man shall be discharged for acting on this committee."

The company's answer to this was, first that the men are not, and never have been obliged to buy exclusively at the company store; second, that the advance would not be granted, because the company was paying the average rate of the region; third, the company absolutely refused, without assigning any reason, to discharge anybody who participated in the shooting; fourth, that men suspended on idle days have the privilege of taking somebody else's place, thus making good the difference in rate between rock and coal work, and fifth, that no man shall be discharged for acting on the grievance committee.

Superintendent Blake made a short speech to the men, urging them to return to work, and arguing that they could gain nothing by remaining idle. But the men refused to work and dispersed.

There were several arrivals here. One of these was Hugh O'Donnell, who gained some notoriety as a strike leader during the Homestead riots. He declared positively that he was here on private business and had nothing whatever to do with the strike.

A. S. Ambrose and Dr. Henry Baracas, both editors of Hungarian papers in New York city, were also among the new comers. They are in close touch with the strikers and have held conferences with the leaders. Dr. Baracas said that with most of the men the company store grievance took precedence over every other complaint. At Drifton, he said, nearly all of the threatened employees are Irishmen. They were to have held meetings to consider the advisability of going out, but, said the doctor, had received word from the anthracite operators not to do so, but to select from each mine a committee of six or seven miners and send them to the officials of the mines with their grievances. The men are considering the suggestion.

There were no additional deaths. Four or five men who have been hovering between life and death ever since the shooting were unchanged, but all of the others were doing well and many already have been discharged from the hospital. The funeral of Jacob Tomashontas, the lad who was shot through the head and lingered until Sunday, has occurred in McAdoo. It was attended by one of the largest gatherings seen since the outbreak of the trouble. There was no demonstration and the services passed off quietly.

The only other incident in that quiet village was the failure of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre men to return to work. They had accepted the offer of 10 per cent increase made by the company last Saturday, but failed to resume. The men have decided to ask for a clearer statement from Superintendent Lowell before resuming work.

The strikers are overawed by the presence of the troops. With this feeling prevalent, it is almost a certainty that there will be no trouble, except, possibly, a few minor demonstrations in the outlying territory, so long as the militia is here.

JONES DEPLETED LOW WAGES.

The Man the Strikers Abused Talks on the Situation.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 15.—Gomer Jones, the mine superintendent against whose rule the strikers at the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre mines rebelled, came here from Stodton, Eng., where he had spent seven years as a superintendent. He has worked his way up from the bottom to his present position. Asked about the cause of the miners' dislike for him the superintendent said:

"I came here a year ago to restore discipline in the mines, and to operate them on a paying basis for the company. At that time the men did about as they pleased, having been spoiled by familiarity from the two previous superintendents. My habits are different. I'm not a drinking man, and I've never made it a practice to hobnob with the men. When I give orders I expect them to be obeyed."

"In this policy you were carrying out the instructions of the company?" he was asked.

"That was what I was employed for. Then I dismissed about 80 men, but I never put anybody in their places."

"On the night that the strikers came to my house and stole $200 worth of silverware, and broke the furniture, we were armed and could have killed 100 of them if we had wanted to. It was a drunken mob, that was all, and I thought we had had enough bloodshed."

"Are you not afraid of violence at the hands of the strikers if they get hold of you?"

"No, I have been here every day since the strike commenced. I walk the streets day or night without running any risk."

"Do you anticipate any trouble when the men go back to work today?"

"No, I believe that the other operators will grant the concessions that the men ask for. It must come sometime; wages had gotten to a point where the men could hardly exist if cut down any further."

OVATION FOR DOLAN.

Miners and Families Exultant Over Settlement of the Strike.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 15.—District President Patrick Dolan of the United Mine Workers, when he reached his home at Cecil was greeted with an ovation. He was met by troops of miners enthusiastic over the successful strike settlement. In advance came several little girls dressed in white and carrying wreaths, which they showered on Mr. Dolan. His way from the railroad station to his home was a triumphal procession.

The district convention of the miners met this morning in K. of L. hall, this city, with a large attendance. President Dolan told the delegates of the Columbus convention proceedings and advised the miners to go to work at once, but they could remain out the balance of the ten days if they wished to do so. The convention will probably adopt resolutions favoring immediate resumption.

STRIKE TO BE PROLONGED.

Labor Leaders Determined to Unionize West Virginia Miners.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Sept. 15.—"We are going to fight the battle until every operator in West Virginia recognizes union labor." Thus W. A. Carney sums up the mining situation in West Virginia. Carney is now in charge of the Fairmont district, Rea having been removed. Chris Evans, ex-secretary of the American Federation of Labor, joins him here tomorrow morning and other agitators will be in the last of the week. The strike will be prolonged until the operators of this state sign the scale.

ARMOR PLANT IN SOUTH.

Delegation Points Out Advantages to the Government Board.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—A delegation of representative men from the large iron sections of the south has gone before the naval board, which is considering the question of establishing a government armor factory, and urged that the south offered the greatest advantages, in cost of iron, labor, transportation, etc., for the location of the proposed government armor plate factory. The delegation was made up of Commissioner of Pensions H. Clay Evans of Tennessee and Representatives Wheeler of Alabama, Livingstone of Georgia and Gaines of Tennessee. It was stated at the hearing that the iron used by the large private concerns now making armor plate was bought, to a large extent, from the south at the low price of $5.40 to $5.70 per ton.

It was argued also that an inland armor factory in the south would be more secure from attack in case of war than one near the Atlantic coast in the north. Letters favorable to the southern industry were presented from Senators Platt of New York and Stewart of Nevada, and it was stated that Senator Chandler of New Hampshire, who has taken a leading part in the plan of a government factory, had written a letter favorable to its establishment at Sheffield, Ala. The delegation filed a written statement setting forth the many advantages of the south in this particular.

WATCHING FOR AN ANARCHIST.

Ventre, Expelled From Spain, Trying to Come Here From Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The treasury department has received information that an anarchist named Joseph Ventre some time ago was expelled from Spain and that he had arrived at Tampico, Mex., enroute to the United States. It is also stated that Ventre received assistance from parties in Mexico in his efforts to reach this country, and that passage had been engaged for him on the City of Washington.

The captain of the vessel, however, refused to receive him, and it is expected that he will now make an effort to cross the border either at some point in New Mexico or Texas. Customs officials have been notified to be on the alert and if found Ventre will be deported as an assisted immigrant.

WILL SETTLE M'CORD CASE.

The Message of the President of Peru Gave the Information.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Mr. Neill, United States minister to Peru, has sent the secretary of state a copy of the message of the president of Peru, delivered Aug. 12. It makes the following reference to the McCord case:

"The Ramsey case has been honorably settled and doubtless the one relating to McCord will also be arranged satisfactorily, it having been confided to the immediate attention of the legation recently accredited to Washington."

WELLINGTON IS OUT.

A Successor as Maryland Republican Chairman to Be Chosen.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15.—United States Senator George L. Wellington resigned the chairmanship of the Republican state central committee, thus relinquishing the leadership of the party in this state, which he has held for the past three years. This action was taken at a meeting of the committee and is the direct result of the senator's defeat at the recent convention in Ocean City.

In resigning the chairmanship, Senator Wellington delivered a bitter speech in which he is alleged to have asserted that the Republicans are doomed to certain defeat in the coming campaign in Maryland. His successor will be elected today after the meeting of the state convention, which was adjourned from Ocean City.

SQUALLY OUTLOOK FOR SPAIN.

The Liberal Leader Tells Some Plain but Unpleasant Truths.

MADRID, Sept. 15.—Senor Segasta, the Liberal leader, in an interview on the subject of the Cuban insurrection, says that the uprising, instead of dying out, is spreading considerably. In addition, Senor Segasta says the situation in the Philippine islands is serious. He also asserts that the Carlist propaganda in Spain cannot be viewed with indifference.

The Liberal leader refused to express himself regarding the relations between the United States and Spain.

The position of the Bank of Spain continues to greatly concern commercial circles, owing to its immense note circulation.

Colonel Pabst Married Again.

VENTOR, Isle of Wight, Sept. 15.—Colonel Gustav Pabst, a son of the Milwaukee millionaire brewer, has been married here to Miss Hilda Lemp, a daughter of the millionaire brewer, W. J. Lemp, of St. Louis. The bridegroom was previously married to Margaret Mather, the actress, from whom he was recently divorced.

AN EPIDEMIC OF FEVER.

Guiteras Says Yellow Jack Will Soon Rage.

NEW CASES AT DIFFERENT POINTS.

A Special Train Carried Scared Citizens to Atlanta From Fever Points—Others to Be Sent to Cincinnati—Rigid Quarantine at Different Places.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Advices from the yellow fever district contain the following information:

Surgeon Carter reports another case of yellow fever in Scranton, Miss., against the spread of which reasonable precautions have been taken.

From Mobile, Dr. Guiteras reports two new cases in one home in the southern part of the city, near the locality of the other case reported, and where the disease, Dr. Guiteras, says, will begin to assume an epidemic form. There are now three cases.

As Savannah, Montgomery, Ala., Birmingham, Ala., Selma, Ala., Meridian, Miss., and points south thereof, are enforcing rigid quarantine regulations, intending travelers for that section will have to be governed by the same, and provide themselves with health certificates as required by local regulations.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—There are four more cases of yellow fever here and others suspicious.

The Louisville and Nashville ran a train to Atlanta, giving people on the coast an opportunity to go to the Gate City. The train took about 20 ladies and gentlemen from Biloxi and a number have left New Orleans for that point. The railroad company, however, refuses to allow passenger to take any baggage of such a nature as to be a good abiding place for germs.

A new case of fever was reported at Barclay. Out of a population of 25 only three persons in Barclay have not had the sickness, and the percentage of deaths has been what is usual in yellow fever epidemics. There were several new cases reported at Ocean Springs, and of the number of ill at Biloxi 15 were reported as suffering with yellow fever. At Ocean Springs Dr. Wasdin of the Marine hospital staff is receiving the best of attention, and it is hoped he will pull through in a few days.

A case of yellow fever exists at Pascagoula. A number of people at Ocean Springs are to be sent to Cincinnati in a special car, also people from Biloxi, to deprive the fever of fresh material to feed upon.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 15.—A general movement of the people to the surrounding country is on. The city is now surrounded on all sides by an armed guard and the quarantine rules are enforced with great strictness. The principal cause of alarm to the people of Jackson came from Edwards, where there are two cases of yellow fever.

CABINET CONSIDERS AID.

Alger Wants to Send Food to Starving Goldseekers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—With reference to the Klondike rush Secretary Alger has laid before the cabinet several telegrams urging relief for stricken prospectors, including one from the citizens' committee of Tacoma, representing that distress existed already at Dawson City, stating that starvation had begun and praying that a revenue cutter be sent with supplies to St. Michaels and chances taken on getting the supplies to those in need of them. The discussion made it evident that the cabinet was not quite clear that the government authorities had warrant of law for furnishing supplies, but Secretary Alger telegraphed to Senator Perkins of California, who is interested in a line to Alaska, asking him if he would undertake to deliver a ship load of supplies at St. Michaels. If it be found that the law will not permit the government to send supplies, then relief will be furnished by private persons, in order that a horror may not grow out of the rush for gold.

The cabinet meeting also decided that the government will now go ahead with the construction of a breakwater at San Pedro, Cal.

KELSO DROWNED.

Threw a Detective Into a Lake, Who Was Rescued by Another.

WASHINGTON, Wis., Sept. 15.—Archibald Kelso, who was wanted in Pittsburgh for murdering his father and who escaped from the detectives by jumping from a train in Illinois, has been chased into a lake near here and it is almost certain that he was drowned.

Detective Black of Pittsburgh was thrown into the lake by Kelso before he took his fatal plunge and the detective was rescued by Morris Goldfun, another Pittsburgh detective, who, as he brought the nearly drowned man ashore, had to fight off Kelso's pals with his pistol.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Ambassadors of the Powers Resumed Their Conference at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15.—A meeting of the ambassadors of the powers has been held and an understanding was reached on the preliminaries of the Greco-Turkish treaty of peace, based upon the Marquis of Salisbury's proposals. These facts have been communicated to the Turkish minister for foreign affairs, Tewfik Pasha, who has been requested to meet the ambassadors at the Tophane palace today to resume the formal negotiations for peace.

CIVIL SERVICE RESTRICTED.

Judge Cox's Important Decision Dismissing Case Against Gary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Judge Cox of the supreme court of the District of Columbia has dismissed the bill of complaint of John G. Wood, superintendent of mails at Louisville, praying that Postmaster General Gary and Assistant Postmaster General Heath be enjoined from removing him from office, under the civil service rules.

Judge Cox's decision was an elaborate review of the law bearing on removals of federal employees. He held at the outset that it was not within the power of a court of equity to grant relief in matters of appointment and removal from office. Then taking up the merits of the case he stated that it was settled law that the power of removal was an incident to the power of appointment, and that both could be exercised by the head of a department in reference to subordinate officials.

Concerning the civil service law, Judge Cox held that it must not be construed to grant authority, either to the civil service commission or to the president, to make rules contrary to the law itself, or of legislative character. He quoted with approval the decision of Justice Brewer that congress could not delegate its power to legislate to any administrative body.

That the civil service commission regards the decision of Judge Cox as inimical to the service is indicated by the following statement made by one of the members of that body:

"The opinion of Judge Cox in no way affects the binding character of the president's order upon all officers of the service. The president has authority inherent in his office to make removals. The intent was that the appointing officer in making removals should be put on record as to the grounds of his action, and give the accused an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. It was deemed that this action would prevent removals for other causes than the good of the service. Such an order does not in the least impair the good of the service. Such an order does not in the least impair the power of discipline nor impede the proper exercise of the power of removal. It simply serves as a check upon the appointing officer who acts from political or less worthy motives."

NO NEED OF A BATTLESHIP.

The Situation at Hawaii Has Passed the Danger Point.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Philadelphia, flagship of the Pacific station, now at Honolulu, is to come home as soon as the necessary orders can reach her. This will leave the Bennington as the sole representative of the United States navy at Honolulu until the Baltimore reaches that port. It has been found necessary to adopt this course in order to get the crew to man the Baltimore, which now lies at Mare Island navy yard almost ready for sea.

With the men secured from the Philadelphia by re-enlistment it will be possible to man the Baltimore and send her back to the Hawaiian Islands. At one time it was believed it would be necessary to send the battleship Oregon out for this purpose, but that plan was abandoned. As the Japanese cruiser Naniwa has left Honolulu for Japan it is believed that no interests are jeopardized by leaving only the Bennington there.

THE GULF STORM.

Early Reports of the Disaster Were Exaggerated.

GALVESTON, Sept. 13.—Later and more accurate reports received from points in the storm belt show that the reports that reached Galveston were greatly exaggerated. At Sabine Pass four people were drowned.

Port Arthur suffered the brunt of the blast and half of the town is estimated to have been destroyed or badly injured. Five people were killed.

A Victory For the Workmen.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has received a telegram from the federation's organizer at Elwood, Ind., stating that the tinplate workers' scale presented by the union had been signed and that the strike had ended in a victory for the workmen.

U. S. Army Officer Decorated.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—President Faure and the king of Siam have reviewed the northern army of St. Quentin. Later, the president conferred decorations upon several foreign officers, including Lieutenant Williams of the United States army.

Knights and Ladies of Honor.

DETROIT, Sept. 15.—The supreme lodge of the Knights and Ladies of Honor, a national mutual benefit and protective organization with a membership of 75,000, is holding its eleventh annual meeting here.

14 Injured In a Collision.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Two electric cars on the Suburban electric railroad have collided on Harlem avenue. The motorman, J. Murphy, and John Jamison will die. Twelve others were injured.

WILL SETTLE M'CORD CASE.

The Message of the President of Peru Gave the Information.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Mr. Neill, United States minister to Peru, has sent the secretary of state a copy of the message of the president of Peru, delivered Aug. 12. It makes the following reference to the McCord case:

"The Ramsey case has been honorably settled and doubtless the one relating to McCord will also be arranged satisfactorily, it having been confided to the immediate attention of the legation recently accredited to Washington."

WELLINGTON IS OUT.

A Successor as Maryland Republican Chairman to Be Chosen.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15.—United States Senator George L. Wellington resigned the chairmanship of the Republican state central committee, thus relinquishing the leadership of the party in this state, which he has held for the past three years. This action was taken at a meeting of the committee and is the direct result of the senator's defeat at the recent convention in Ocean City.

In resigning the chairmanship, Senator Wellington delivered a bitter speech in which he is alleged to have asserted that the Republicans are doomed to certain defeat in the coming campaign in Maryland. His successor will be elected today after the meeting of the state convention, which was adjourned from Ocean City.

SQUALLY OUTLOOK FOR SPAIN.

The Liberal Leader Tells Some Plain but Unpleasant Truths.

MADRID, Sept. 15.—Senor Segasta, the Liberal leader, in an interview on the subject of the Cuban insurrection, says that the uprising, instead of dying out, is spreading considerably. In addition, Senor Segasta says the situation in the Philippine islands is serious. He also asserts that the Carlist propaganda in Spain cannot be viewed with indifference.

The Liberal leader refused to express himself regarding the relations between the United States and Spain. The position of the Bank of Spain continues to greatly concern commercial circles, owing to its immense note circulation.

AN EPIDEMIC OF FEVER.

Guiteras Says Yellow Jack Will Soon Rage.

NEW CASES AT DIFFERENT POINTS.

A Special Train Carried Scared Citizens to Atlanta From Fever Points—Others to Be Sent to Cincinnati—Rigid Quarantine at Different Places.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Advices from the yellow fever district contain the following information:

Surgeon Carter reports another case of yellow fever in Scranton, Miss., against the spread of which reasonable precautions have been taken.

From Mobile, Dr. Guiteras reports two new cases in one home in the southern part of the city, near the locality of the other case reported, and where the disease, Dr. Guiteras, says, will begin to assume an epidemic form. There are now three cases.

As Savannah, Montgomery, Ala., Birmingham, Ala., Selma, Ala., Meridian, Miss., and points south thereof, are enforcing rigid quarantine regulations, intending travelers for that section will have to be governed by the same, and provide themselves with health certificates as required by local regulations.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 15.—There are four more cases of yellow fever here and others suspicious.

The Louisville and Nashville ran a train to Atlanta, giving people on the coast an opportunity to go to the Gate City. The train took about 20 ladies and gentlemen from Biloxi and a number have left New Orleans for that point. The railroad company, however, refuses to allow passenger to take any baggage of such a nature as to be a good abiding place for germs.

A new case of fever was reported at Barclay. Out of a population of 25 only three persons in Barclay have not had the sickness, and the percentage of deaths has been what is usual in yellow fever epidemics. There were several new cases reported at Ocean Springs, and of the number of ill at Biloxi 15 were reported as suffering with yellow fever. At Ocean Springs Dr. Wasdin of the Marine hospital staff is receiving the best of attention, and it is hoped he will pull through in a few days.

A case of yellow fever exists at Pascagoula. A number of people at Ocean Springs are to be sent to Cincinnati in a special car, also people from Biloxi, to deprive the fever of fresh material to feed upon.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 15.—A general movement of the people to the surrounding country is on. The city is now surrounded on all sides by an armed guard and the quarantine rules are enforced with great strictness. The principal cause of alarm to the people of Jackson came from Edwards, where there are two cases of yellow fever.

CABINET CONSIDERS AID.

Alger Wants to Send Food to Starving Goldseekers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—With reference to the Klondike rush Secretary Alger has laid before the cabinet several telegrams urging relief for stricken prospectors, including one from the citizens' committee of Tacoma, representing that distress existed already at Dawson City, stating that starvation had begun and praying that a revenue cutter be sent with supplies to St. Michaels and chances taken on getting the supplies to those in need of them. The discussion made it evident that the cabinet was not quite clear that the government authorities had warrant of law for furnishing supplies, but Secretary Alger telegraphed to Senator Perkins of California, who is interested in a line to Alaska, asking him if he would undertake to deliver a ship load of supplies at St. Michaels. If it be found that the law will not permit the government to send supplies, then relief will be furnished by private persons, in order that a horror may not grow out of the rush for gold.

The cabinet meeting also decided that the government will now go ahead with the construction of a breakwater at San Pedro, Cal.

KELSO DROWNED.

Threw a Detective Into a Lake, Who Was Rescued by Another.

WASHINGTON, Wis., Sept. 15.—Archibald Kelso, who was wanted in Pittsburgh for murdering his father and who escaped from the detectives by jumping from a train in Illinois, has been chased into a lake near here and it is almost certain that he was drowned.

Detective Black of Pittsburgh was thrown into the lake by Kelso before he took his fatal plunge and the detective was rescued by Morris Goldfurn, another Pittsburgh detective, who, as he brought the nearly drowned man ashore, had to fight off Kelso's pals with his pistol.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Ambassadors of the Powers Resumed Their Conference at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15.—A meeting of the ambassadors of the powers has been held and an understanding

was reached on the preliminaries of the Greco-Turkish treaty of peace, based upon the Marquis of Salisbury's proposals. These facts have been communicated to the Turkish minister for foreign affairs, Tewfik Pasha, who has been requested to meet the ambassadors at the Tophane palace today to resume the formal negotiations for peace.

CIVIL SERVICE RESTRICTED.

Judge Cox's Important Decision Dismissing Case Against Gary.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Judge Cox of the supreme court of the District of Columbia has dismissed the bill of complaint of John G. Wood, superintendent of mails at Louisville, praying that Postmaster General Gary and Assistant Postmaster General Heath be enjoined from removing him from office, under the civil service rules.

Judge Cox's decision was an elaborate review of the law bearing on removals of federal employees. He held at the outset that it was not within the power of a court of equity to grant relief in matters of appointment and removal from office. Then taking up the merits of the case he stated that it was settled law that the power of removal was an incident to the power of appointment, and that both could be exercised by the head of a department in reference to subordinate officials.

Concerning the civil service law, Judge Cox held that it must not be construed to grant authority, either to the civil service commission or to the president, to make rules contrary to the law itself, or of legislative character. He quoted with approval the decision of Justice Brewer that congress could not delegate its power to legislate to any administrative body.

That the civil service commission regards the decision of Judge Cox as inimical to the service is indicated by the following statement made by one of the members of that body:

"The opinion of Judge Cox in no way affects the binding character of the president's order upon all officers of the service. The president has authority inherent in his office to make removals. The intent was that the appointing officer in making removals should be put on record as to the grounds of his action, and give the accused an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. It was deemed that this action would prevent removals for other causes than the good of the service. Such an order does not in the least impair the good of the service. Such an order does not in the least impair the power of discipline nor impede the proper exercise of the power of removal. It simply serves as a check upon the appointing officer who acts from political or less worthy motives."

NO NEED OF A BATTLESHIP.

The Situation at Hawaii Has Passed the Danger Point.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Philadelphia, flagship of the Pacific station, now at Honolulu, is to come home as soon as the necessary orders can reach her. This will leave the Bennington as the sole representative of the United States navy at Honolulu until the Baltimore reaches that port. It has been found necessary to adopt this course in order to get the crew to man the Baltimore, which now lies at Mare Island navyyard almost ready for sea.

With the men secured from the Philadelphia by re-enlistment it will be possible to man the Baltimore and send her back to the Hawaiian Islands. At one time it was believed it would be necessary to send the battleship Oregon out for this purpose, but that plan was abandoned. As the Japanese cruiser Naniwa has left Honolulu for Japan it is believed that no interests are jeopardized by leaving only the Bennington there.

THE GULF STORM.

Early Reports of the Disaster Were Exaggerated.

GALVESTON, Sept. 13.—Later and more accurate reports received from points in the storm belt show that the reports that reached Galveston were greatly exaggerated. At Sabine Pass four people were drowned.

Port Arthur suffered the brunt of the blast and half of the town is estimated to have been destroyed or badly injured. Five people were killed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has received a telegram from the federation's organizer at Elwood, Ind., stating that the tinplate workers' scale presented by the union had been signed and that the strike had ended in a victory for the workmen.

MINERS BACK AT WORK.

A Number Resumed at Different Mines About Massillon.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 15.—The coal miners in the Massillon district held a delegate massmeeting and decided to accept the new rate for mining at the expiration of the ten days limit. Parts of the compromise agreement were rejected, however, and a committee was appointed to confer with the operators. If the demands of the men are not granted in ten days the strike will be continued.

Four hundred men at the Goshen mines returned to work, ignoring the ten days' clause, and 400 others resumed at the Midvale mines. All the mines in the Silver creek and Clinton districts, near Akron, resumed operations.

IF STEVENSON IS NEAR

He Will Be Compelled to Answer In Court.

CURIOUS STORIES ARE TOLD

Which Say That He Has Been Seen to Cross the River a Number of Times Since He Boarded the Ben Hur Near the Pennsylvania Line.

If A. W. Stevenson, as some people believe, is in this part of the country, it is probable that he will be called upon to answer for what he did when, as a practicing attorney, he was known to almost everyone in this city.

Stevenson's friends say that he is far enough away, and it will be years before he ever again looks upon East Liverpool, and the fact that he one Sunday morning boarded the Ben Hur at a point beyond the Pennsylvania line adds color to the story. It is also said, however, that he was seen after that a number of times in Pittsburgh and again on a Fort Wayne train, but it was not until this week that a local man could be found who would state positively that Stevenson was in this vicinity. That man told the NEWS REVIEW that he knew the attorney was not far from here, and if he was only kind enough to remain there a short time he would answer for his doings. One of his victims said that he believed Stevenson could not keep out of the clutches of the law much longer. It is also said that a Liverpool man was given a glass of buttermilk by Stevenson this week.

EXPECTS A DOLLAR.

Wheat Was Up In the Air This Morning.

A farmer living near Calcutta drove into the city this morning with 53 bushels of seed wheat.

"What are you catching a bushel for it?" asked a reporter.

"Well," said the farmer, "this load sold for 90 cents a bushel, which is the highest I have received for several years, and the same kind last year was disposed of at 48 cents. I expect to get a dollar a bushel within a short time. Yes, sir, these are good Republican times and no mistake."

The farmer was after them in a few minutes, and forcibly informed them that if they did not leave at once he would have them all arrested. They left.

Well Started.

The public schools are well started, but there are yet too many students for some buildings. The household effects of Mrs. Rose Hall are at the wharf boat awaiting shipment to New Matamoras. The first Cincinnati packet will take them down.

WELLSVILLE

AFTER A GOOD FIRM

Board of Trade Makes a Liberal Proposition.

LIVERPOOL WOULDN'T ACCEPT

The Potters Did Not Think it Enough For a Big Factory—Abundant Work at the Rolling Mill—Crescents Want a Game. All the News of Wellsville.

An important meeting of the board of trade was held last night, but just what that body of enterprising business men did is among the problems that have not yet been solved. It is known that the board have a number of good things under advisement, and Wellsville need not be surprised if it awakens some crisp morning during the fall to find another big manufacturing concern located where it will do a vast deal of good.

The board wanted a Liverpool pottery, and made a liberal proposition in which $7,000 figured prominently as a cash bonus, but the company did not believe that was enough to tempt them, and the offer was not accepted. Whether it will be made again with the necessary additions remains to be seen, but it is not at all probable. Although nothing is given out in an authoritative way there are hints sufficient to warrant the assertion that the board will soon land a fish of unusual dimensions.

HARD AT WORK.

The Rolling Mill is Making the Best Time In Its History.

The rolling mill is one of the busiest places in town and Manager Everson is among its busiest men. The large force has all it can do to fill the orders, and although the mill has had a very steady run, for the first time in a number of years it is being rushed to its greatest capacity. The output at present is more than it has ever been, and the prospects are so good that a largely increased trade is expected. The number of men employed, the regularity with which they work, and the wages at present paid them makes the mill one of Wellsville's very best industries. It is a splendid example of what Republican times are doing for the country.

In the Shops.

Workmen are still covering the wood-work in the machine shop with white-wash.

Pittsburg and Western engine No. 2 left the shops in good repair this morning.

Passenger engine No. 613 is being repaired.

Engine No. 646, of the Cleveland Flyer, and engine 609 broke eccentrics yesterday, and will be repaired at the other end of the line.

They Want a Game.

The Crescents are anxious for a game with some good club next Saturday. They have written to the Beaver Grays, Rochester and the Hollidays, of Pittsburg, but as yet have received no reply. They will likely play the Grays or the Pittsburg team.

MEXICO DISSATISFIED.

Governor Boies Openly Leaves the Free Silver Camp.

HARD BLOWS AT FREE COINAGE.

Governor Boies Says 16 to 1 Legislation Is Impossible, and Would Not Be Desirable if It Could Be Secured—Mexico May Adopt the Gold Standard—Silver No Longer Meets Requirements.

When a cause is losing both its advocates and its illustrations it must be in a bad way indeed. Yet that is the moribund condition of the free coinage of silver theory, which the Democrats have been trying to bolster up to a living issue. Two recent events, going to show that this is true, have greatly distressed the free coinage Democrats. One of them is the growing sentiment among thinking Mexicans in favor of the adoption of the gold standard; the other is the brave stand taken by Hon. Horace Boies in repudiation of the silver issue.

Governor Boies made an emphatic declaration of his position, in his speech opening the Democratic campaign of Iowa, made at Fort Dodge, Aug. 19. He said:

"Under circumstances as they now exist, with silver demonetized by the great commercial countries of the globe, with the frightful chasm that separates the commercial values of the two metals constantly widening, and in the light of our own recent national election, I can not bring my own mind to believe that the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 with gold is within the reach of its friends; NOR CAN I HELP THE FEAR THAT IT WOULD NOT BE DESIRABLE, EVEN IF ATTAINABLE."

One year ago Governor Boies was one of the leading candidates of his party for the presidential nomination on a platform declaring for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. He was unquestionably sincere in his advocacy of that principle then, and he is beyond doubt honest in his repudiation of the fallacy now. His public departure from the camp of the free coinage members of the Democratic party simply means that he has had his eyes opened to new facts and conditions, that like all honest men he has been led to change his opinions, and again, like all honest men, he is willing to make public acknowledgement of that revision of belief.

In the case of Mexico are to be found some of the reasons why men like Governor Boies are leaving the free silver advocates and admitting that honest money is good enough for them. Mexico has been one of the stock arguments of the free coinage people, from Bryan to Harvey. Next to the so-called "marriage" of silver and wheat, they have believed it to be one of the most beautiful of all their object lessons. That the citizens of the provinces of Mexico did not themselves agree with Mr. Bryan and his fellows did not in the least disturb the easy and rhythmic flow of their free silver eloquence.

It appears, however, that matters in Mexico are going from bad to worse, until, in seeking a remedy for existing industrial and commercial conditions, the people of that country are willing to accept almost anything, even to the gold standard, if that will bring relief. One of the most suggestive features of the situation is the practical unanimity with which the Mexican newspapers are just now bewailing the effects upon their country of the free coinage of silver. Among the most influential of these newspapers is the Mexican Herald, the principal journal of the City of Mexico, which in a recent issue prints the following:

"It is argued by some people that manufacturing here will be increased by the fall of silver. Surely there is a limit to the home demand in many lines, and in regard to new articles requiring trained workmen, the great obstacle at once presents itself—we have not the mechanics. The only class of workmen who could possibly be induced to come here would be orientals, and even they have not shown a disposition to accept our low wages."

"The eagerness with which many people have taken advantage of the fall in silver to raise prices has been previously exhibited on several occasions. Imported goods naturally have to be raised in price at the risk of driving away trade, but why should rents be put up, and even charcoal, the universal domestic fuel, be made dearer? If there is anything that will sooner educate the people to ask for a gold standard than this gradual approximation of prices to the highest level possible we do not know of it. If anything is to be made dearer, sensible people will say that we might as well make the plunge and escape from the continual upsets of all values."

Nearly one year ago P. Enright and P. J. Maas were sent from the Chicago Trades and Labor Assembly to investigate labor conditions in Mexico. The voluminous report which these representative workmen filed with their organization last October dwelt with such emphasis upon the low wages and deplorable industrial conditions of Mexico that it attracted attention even in the heat of a campaign. Now comes the leading newspaper of the City of Mexico and makes admissions which fully corroborate the statements made in the report of Messrs. Enright and Maas.

But how do Mr. Bryan and his coadjutors feel about it, since, having lost "Uncle Rod" Boies, they find they are about to lose Mexico, too?

Short Tomato Crop.

Owing to the slump in the tomato crop throughout the country this season it is predicted by a number of prominent merchants and brokers that within the next three or four weeks the canned tomato, which today is selling for 80 cents per dozen cans, will have reached, if not passed, the dollar mark. There is only one-half the crop that there was last year, and as a result the big canneries throughout New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland are refusing to place this commodity on the market.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. Crispi of Italy has had his own monument erected in a Naples cemetery. Its only inscription is "Crispi."

Hans Wiseman, a famous Nebraska pioneer, is said to have killed in the course of his life over 100 Indians.

Hamlin Garland's first published poem netted him $25. He paid $5 for Grant's "Memoirs" and $20 for a silk dress piece, which he gave to his mother.

Curley Chief, one of the most noted Pawnee Indians, is dead. Curley Chief was 100 years old. In all the Indian wars he took a prominent part.

Mme. Sarah Grand has returned to London after some months' stay on the continent, bringing with her the manuscript of the new novel upon which she has been long occupied.

Miss Maria Audubon of Salem, N. J., daughter of the famous naturalist, has completed, after 12 years of hard labor, a translation of her father's hitherto unpublished journals.

Bernard Bettman of Cincinnati has accepted the presidency of the saengerfest jubilee, which is to commence the fiftieth anniversary of the North American saengerbund and to be held in Cincinnati in 1899.

PURGE LOCAL POLITICS

Rev. O. S. Reed Champions the Cause of Truth.

HE DEALS IN PRACTICAL IDEAS

He Believes in the Enforcement of Existing Laws and in Placing Good Men and True in Office—He Deals Doughty Blows Against the Saloon Curse.

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—In response to request for presentation of my sermon, delivered on Sunday evening last, will say: I do not write out my sermons, nor even speak from notes. To produce the discourse, as delivered, would be quite impossible; yet, in hopes of awakening the public conscience and securing a larger audience than that accorded me, I will present the salient points of the sermon. The introductory, as given in your issue of Monday, was quite correct and needs no repetition.

"Ours is a Christian nation. Its beginning was along the lines of Christian effort. The inscription upon old Independence bell, taken from the Pentateuch, 'Proclaim Liberty throughout the land, to all the inhabitants thereof,' was the keynote to the ambition of the founders of our republic. That which engages the attention of all who land in New York city, a lighthouse, the gift of a Frenchman, represents America's highest ideal in the thought 'Liberty enlightening the world.' Indeed, with the landing of Columbus on San Salvador's island, when he planted the cross and dedicated the new found land to God, was the beginning of a new era in the world's progress. Whence came our forefathers and who were they? Pass them in review; the pilgrims, fleeing before the spirit of religious persecution; the Quakers, seeking a home where religious liberty might be developed. The Huguenots, in some instances hither hurried before armed legions; so that the colonies became dominated by the spirit of Christ. True it is that truth in their case had strange companions. Each in turn because abusive of others and wonderfully seclusive, as evidence the sad period of Salem witchcraft, Quaker intolerance, persecution of Baptists. Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson, with their followers, ostracised and driven from their homes. Liquor on the tables of the clergy—served at all public gatherings. Gradually, as light dawned, these petty persecutions gave way. Liquor and the clergy were divorced in 1837. Progress was made and is making, keeping step with awakened conscience. The matter of growth was that of the blessed Master: 'first the blade, then the ear, and last the full corn in the ear.'

"We note these advancements along lines natural, intellectual, moral. The first Declaration of Independence was that written by Thomas Jefferson, but those who adopted the sentiments had no just and lofty idea of their meaning. That all men were born free and equal was read in the light of existing slavery, and was construed to mean 'all races of men except those of color.'

"With agitation and quickening of national thought came the second declaration of independence—that of Lincoln, when the clanking chains fell from three million peoples' limbs.

"The third declaration of independence is yet to come. It is weightier than all tariff considerations, than all national prosperity; in fact, its realization will settle all these. It is salvation from the drink habit.

"Law in its execution is never more rapid than is the advance of public opinion. It only becomes so when a wholesome public opinion has been established. We will never be ready for the third declaration until public opinion has been established in the interests of sobriety—crystallized, if you please.

"Our laws are now far in advance of our life. Laws now on the statute books, rigidly enforced, would change the aspect of things wonderfully.

"Here in East Liverpool we see the effects of intemperance; deplore the fact; but what are we doing? Enforcing laws already on our statute books? No!

IN EVERYBODY'S MOUTH.

That is where Tonsiline should be, when they have Sore Throat. A sore throat remedy that cures; cures quickly, safely, surely—that is what has been needed for years in every home. That's the kind of a cure Tonsiline is. Tonsiline never fails to cure sore throat and sore mouth. Keep Tonsiline always at hand, it saves dollars and lives.

25 and 50 cents, at all druggists. THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

Should we do so, our streets would not be disgraced daily and nightly, as they are.

"Since coming to this wide-awake, beautiful city, I have seen minors reeling on our sidewalks, habitual drunkards wallowing in the gutters; men coming from rear doors of saloons on the Lord's day. Have we laws against such conditions? You know that we have. How are they enforced? The only effort I have noted is that of officers of the law laying hold upon these poor victims of the cursed drink habit, taking them before the authorities and having them fined. Is this the enforcement of law? Is this the extent of an officer's duties? Examine your laws and you will find that a saloonkeeper who violates these laws throws himself liable, and if properly and legally pursued, would face his financial ruin. Laws, as they now appear, if enforced, would make a great change. I doubt whether a single saloon could exist in East Liverpool if all laws were thus enforced. But then this would be to 'kill the goose that lays the golden egg.' As it is, yanking up the drinker yields a revenue; to close the saloon, would destroy this.

"Again, to thus drive the saloon out of business would destroy traffic, would cripple us in maintenance of good streets, lighting the same, etc. Is it possible that men will thus reason? That we must pave our streets with the lives of some of our best men—for whisky kills some of the best and wisest. Improvements thus made cost the happiness of some of the best women, cause orphanage and worse than orphanage. The tramp, tramp, tramp of 60,000 annually filling drunkards' graves in free, proud America, is a sad commentary upon this reasoning.

"The reasoning is false. The liquor traffic does not enrich, but tends to poverty. Give me the money passed over the bars of East Liverpool for five years, and I will erect a house for every mechanic in our city, place therein the comforts and some of the luxuries of life. Shame on such reasoning!

Prohibition theories are all right. Radical measures are necessary. What we need is agitation, enlightenment. Prohibition will follow as a natural sequence.

"Some of our officials aid and abet the traffic. What we need is men, stalwart, strong-minded men; men who love right and who live righteous lives. So long as officials are members of clubs, whose membership gather on the Lord's day in their rooms to play cards, and not exactly violate the law by buying liquor on that day, but by securing it by means of checks, with which they are supplied, we cannot hope for a better condition of affairs. Cleanse your home politics. Place men at the helm who are wedded to Christ. Perhaps a few changes are necessary to be made to bring about this condition. I like the suggestion of one of our papers to make the mayoralty of our city and some other offices salaried positions, thus removing the temptation of securing incomes from a most wretched system of nominally enforcing law. Enforcement of law—pardon the thought when it is all looking after the little spigot when the bung-hole is running freely.

"The saloon element stands banded together. How stands the record of temperance people? No system in their work. Occasionally a wave of righteous indignation leads to a spasmodic effort—then comes a lull and all vantage ground is lost. What is demanded is constant, concentrated, systematic effort. Vote for no one who will not honor his oath of office—enforce the law, and himself live within its restrictions. Take part in your primaries, act your part as an American citizen; cleanse politics; don't stand off and let the real work be done, with yourself a mere spectator, and then lament that bad men were put forward.

"The watchword of 'the world for Christ; Christ for the world,' has been supplemented with the local idea, the state for Christ; Christ for the state. Add to this a personal thought, 'myself for Christ,' and Christian citizenship will prove invincible.

"Our enemies during the struggle consequent upon the first Declaration of Independence, now rejoice with us in its achievements. Grady, Gordon, Longstreet and other leaders of the rebellion now rejoice in the triumphs of the second—are proud of our flag, our nation, and a free people. So, too, may we hope that, when the third declaration, that of independence from the drink habit, shall have become a reality, those who now favor the traffic will join with us in its resultant progress. Hail true Christian citizenship! Hail, true liberty! 'Pulverize the rum power.'

WITH Altgeld and Debbs talking at the same time, Chicago is having more than its share this hot weather.

THOSE men are demagogues who howl calamity while the evidences of prosperity are piled high around them.

MR. CHAPMAN has not been heard to utter in public a word commending the miners since the strike was settled.

M. M. INGALLS believes that the railroads will be swamped if they do not unite to fight high taxes, yet there are hundreds of people in this country, individual property owners, who pay much more taxes in proportion to their wealth. Will not they be swamped also?

THE three great meetings by which the Republican campaign was opened last Saturday seem to disturb the Democratic leaders very much. They are all talking of the fiascoes(?) and circuses(?) but down deep in their hearts they fear the influence of those same fiascoes and circuses.

THE great coal strike, now so near an end, has developed that the cheap labor of southern Europe was as much to blame for the cessation of work as any one other cause on the list. Will congress continue to allow these immigrants to come in, and increase the danger of other strikes, perhaps not so peaceably conducted as this one?

INTO THE FIGHT.

Governor Bushnell having recovered his health and strength is plunging into the campaign in a manner which plainly shows his earnestness. Those Democrats who would show that he is a non-entity, a figurehead, will find themselves sadly mistaken before the end of the battle. Governor Bushnell is a business man who seldom makes mistakes, one who carefully calculates the distance before he jumps. Perhaps the knowledge of this makes his opponents more desperate than they would otherwise be.

NO USE FOR ANARCHISTS.

The announcement is made in Paris that a number of prominent French and English anarchists are packing their trunks preparatory to coming to this country where they expect to preach their doctrine wherever two or three can be gathered to hear them. That crowd should think twice before they cross the Atlantic. In the first place they may not be allowed to land, and then they will probably experience no little difficulty in collecting a sufficient number of audiences to make the journey a paying venture. The average American has no use for the teachings of anarchy, even when conditions for popular discontent are ripe, and now that he is busily engaged making up for the working time lost during the past four years, he will pass them by with a smile and

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—In response to request for presentation of my sermon, delivered on Sunday evening last, will say: I do not write out my sermons, nor even speak from notes. To produce the discourse, as delivered, would be quite impossible; yet, in hopes of awakening the public conscience and securing a larger audience than that according me, I will present the salient points of the sermon. The introductory, as given in your issue of Monday, was quite correct and needs no repetition.

"Ours is a Christian nation. Its beginning was along the lines of Christian effort. The inscription upon old Independence bell, taken from the Pentateuch, 'Proclaim Liberty throughout the land, to all the inhabitants thereof,' was the keynote to the ambition of the founders of our republic. That which engages the attention of all who land in New York city, a lighthouse, the gift of a Frenchman, represents America's highest ideal in the thought 'Liberty enlightening the world.' Indeed, with the landing of Columbus on San Salvador's island, when he planted the cross and dedicated the new found land to God, was the beginning of a new era in the world's progress. Whence came our forefathers and who were they? Pass them in review; the pilgrims, fleeing before the spirit of religious persecution;
the Quakers, seeking a home where religious liberty might be developed. The Huguenots, in some instances hither hurried before armed legions; so that the colonies became dominated by the spirit of Christ. True it is that truth in their case had strange companions. Each in turn because abusive of others and wonderfully seclusive, as evidence the sad period of Salem witchcraft, Quaker intolerance, persecution of Baptists. Roger Williams and Anne Hutchinson, with their followers, ostracised and driven from their homes. Liquor on the tables of the clergy—served at all public gatherings. Gradually, as light dawned, these petty persecutions gave way. Liquor and the clergy were divorced in 1837. Progress was made and is making, keeping step with awakened conscience. The matter of growth was that of the blessed Master: 'first the blade, then the ear, and last the full corn in the ear.'

"We note these advancements along lines natural, intellectual, moral. The first Declaration of Independence was that written by Thomas Jefferson, but those who adopted the sentiments had no just and lofty idea of their meaning.
That all men were born free and equal was read in the light of existing slavery, and was construed to mean "all races of men except those of color."

"With agitation and quickening of national thought came the second declaration of independence—that of Lincoln, when the clanking chains fell from three million peoples' limbs.

"The third declaration of independence is yet to come. It is weightier than all tariff considerations, than all national prosperity; in fact, its realization will settle all these. It is salvation from the drink habit.

"Law in its execution is never more rapid than is the advance of public opinion. It only becomes so when a wholesome public opinion has been established. We will never be ready for the third declaration until public opinion has been established in the interests of sobriety—crystalized, if you please.

"Our laws are now far in advance of our life. Laws now on the statute books, rigidly enforced, would change the aspect of things wonderfully.

"Here in East Liverpool we see the effects of intemperance; deplore the fact;
but what are we doing? Enforcing laws already on our statute books? No!

IN EVERYBODY'S MOUTH.

That is where Tonsiline should be, when they have Sore Throat.

A sore throat remedy that cures; cures quickly, safely, surely—that is what has been needed for years in every home. That's the kind of a cure Tonsiline is. Tonsiline never fails to cure sore throat and sore mouth. Keep Tonsiline always at hand, it saves dollars and lives.

25 and 50 cents, at all druggists.
THE TONSILINE CO., CANTON, O.

Should we do so, our streets would not be disgraced daily and nightly, as they are.

"Since coming to this wide-awake, beautiful city, I have seen minors reeling on our sidewalks, habitual drunkards wallowing in the gutters; men coming from rear doors of saloons on the Lord's day. Have we laws against such conditions? You know that we have.
How are they enforced? The only effort I have noted is that of officers of the law laying hold upon these poor victims of the cursed drink habit, taking them before the authorities and having them fined. Is this the enforcement of law? Is this the extent of an officer's duties? Examine your laws and you will find that a saloonkeeper who violates these laws throws himself liable, and if properly and legally pursued, would face his financial ruin. Laws, as they now appear, if enforced, would make a great change. I doubt whether a single saloon could exist in East Liverpool if all laws were thus enforced. But then this would be to 'kill the goose that lays the golden egg.' As it is, yanking up the drinker yields a revenue; to close the saloon, would destroy this.

"Again, to thus drive the saloon out of business would destroy traffic, would cripple us in maintenance of good streets, lighting the same, etc. Is it possible that men will thus reason? That we must pave our streets with the lives of some of our best men—for whisky kills some of the best and wisest. Improvements thus made cost the happiness of some of the best women, cause orphanage and worse than orphanage. The tramp, tramp, tramp of 60,000 annually filling drunkards' graves in free, proud America, is a sad commentary upon this reasoning.

"The reasoning is false. The liquor traffic does not enrich, but tends to poverty. Give me the money passed over the bars of East Liverpool for five years, and I will erect a house for every mechanic in our city, place therein the comforts and some of the luxuries of life. Shame on such reasoning!

Prohibition theories are all right. Radical measures are necessary. What we need is agitation, enlightenment.
Prohibition will follow as a natural sequence.

"Some of our officials aid and abet the traffic. What we need is men, stalwart, strong-minded men; men who love right and who live righteous lives. So long as officials are members of clubs, whose membership gather on the Lord's day in their rooms to play cards, and not exactly violate the law by buying liquor on that day, but by securing it by means of checks, with which they are supplied, we cannot hope for a better condition of affairs. Cleanse your home politics.
Place men at the helm who are wedded to Christ. Perhaps a few changes are necessary to be made to bring about this condition. I like the suggestion of one of our papers to make the mayoralty of our city and some other offices salaried positions, thus removing the temptation of securing incomes from a most wretched system of nominally enforce-ing law. Enforcement of law—pardon the thought when it is all looking after the little spigot when the bung hole is running freely.

"The saloon element stands banded together. How stands the record of temperance people? No system in their work. Occasionally a wave of righteous indignation leads to a spasmodic effort—then comes a lull and all vantage ground is lost. What is demanded is constant, concentrated, systematic effort. Vote for no one who will not honor his oath of office—enforce the law, and himself live within its restrictions. Take part in your primaries, act your part as an American citizen; cleanse politics; don't stand off and let the real work be done, with yourself a mere spectator, and then lament that bad men were put forward.

"The watchword of 'the world for Christ; Christ for the world,' has been supplemented with the local idea, the state for Christ; Christ for the state.
Add to this a personal thought, 'myself for Christ,' and Christian citizenship will prove invincible.

"Our enemies during the struggle consequent upon the first Declaration of Independence, now rejoice with us in its achievements. Grady, Gordon, Longstreet and other leaders of the rebellion now rejoice in the triumphs of the second—are proud of our flag, our nation, and a free people. So, too, may we hope that, when the third declaration, that of independence from the drink habit, shall have become a reality, those who now favor the traffic will join with us in its resultant progress. Hail true Christian citizenship! Hail, true liberty! 'Pulverize the rum power.'

Council Added a Little to the Debt.

APPOINTED ANOTHER POLICEMAN

Mayor Gilbert Filled the Vacancy, and the Officer Was Confirmed—Report of the Tanyard Sewer Committee Filed. Didn't Pay Damage Claims.

Messrs. Ashbaugh and Cain were the only members of council absent when the meeting was called to order last night.

The minutes were read and approved, and the ordinance establishing grade lines on East street was carried. The contracts for street paving were ratified, and Mr. Ryan asked until Nov. 15 to complete his contract, owing to shortage of brick, and upon motion that date was fixed for the completion of all the contracts.

Doctor Marshall asked what the city's share of the improvements would be, and the clerk reported as follows: Cook street, $610; Lincoln avenue, $270.40; Cook street, $665.97. Doctor Marshall then moved that the clerk be instructed to borrow $1,540 to cover the share of the city, and it carried by a unanimous vote.

The mayor reported having collected $100 in fines and licenses during the month, while the fire department answered two fire, 36 patrol and three ambulance calls and conveyed 32 prisoners to the city jail.

The committee appointed to confer with the property owners in regard to sewerage Tanyard run submitted a report to the effect that a number would sign if the city paid all costs. Some were willing to pay a per cent. of the costs, some refused to sign, and some were only willing to sign if the city would give a guarantee that the sewer would not interfere in any way with the buildings they intended to put there in the future.

"It looks, if this report is adopted, it would be the last of Tanyard run for the present," said President Peach. "I move that the solicitor be instructed to commence condemnation proceedings in court for the ground necessary to construct the sewer, as it is only a question of time until the run will have to be sewerage."

Mr. Stewart was in favor of leaving the run to the property owners as a heritage, and Mr. Marshall said that if a trunk sewer was built it would have to be submitted to a vote of the people before it could be charged up to the general tax duplicate. He suggested that a tax improvement of Lisbon, Jethro, Avondale streets, Calcutta road and a road to East End be submitted to the people at the same time, and improvements made in the next two years that will amount to something. The report was received and filed, and the matter dropped.

The solicitor then called attention to the fact that the bill of Clerk King for costs in the Leatherow case should be paid. He also asked for and was granted assistant counsel in the Nelson and Curren damage suits aggregating $20,000, and called attention to the cesspools on Ravine and Minerva streets.

The damage claims of Sophia Wucherer, $146; Mrs. Wolf, $30; Mrs. Deitze, $10; and Mrs. Karris, $50; were read and Mr. Olmhausen moved they be rejected, but got no second.

Mr. Stewart made a motion that they be paid after the solicitor had a receipt from the parties that this would be the full amount of their damages. It was seconded by Mr. Marshall. The motion was strongly opposed by President Peach and Mr. Olmhausen, and when put to a vote was lost, Messrs. Horwell, Peach and Olmhausen voting no.

The bill of J. D. West for $26 for burying Mrs. Robinson was referred back to him, and the historic bill of A. H. Clark was placed on the payroll. The pay ordinance was then passed.

On motion of Mr. Stewart the street commissioner was instructed to notify all property owners on Third street east of Washington street to lay the pavements to grade within the next 10 days, or it would be done for them by the city at their expense. The commissioner was also instructed to repair a gutter on Jackson street.

The name of Robert Finley was presented to fill the vacancy on the police force caused by the resignation of Officer Moore. He was confirmed.

The engineer was instructed to view Peake street, and devise some way of improving it, so that a team could be driven up it.

President Peach moved that the clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for improving Jefferson street from the railroad to Third street, but it was discovered that the ordinance to improve the street had not yet been passed. A resolution to improve Pine street from Ravine street to Thompson avenue was passed.

E. J. Owen called attention to the fact that when the property owners had purchased land in Brant addition they were given to understand that Eighth street was a 50 foot street, but instead by the improvement it was to be made a 60 foot street and he desired to know if the property owners would lose 10 feet which they had paid for. Engineer George submitted a plat of the ground, and the matter went to the street committee and solicitor. The Pleasant Height's plat was referred to the street committee, and council adjourned to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock when a number of new ordinances will be discussed.

REVEALED BY AN AUTOPSY.

Doctors Found the Cause of Mrs. Shingleton's Death.

Mrs. Isaac Shingleton died at her home in East End yesterday after a long illness, the lady having been far from well for 12 years. She was 36 years old, and leaves her husband, two daughters and one son.

An autopsy was conducted this morning by Doctors Marshall, Laughlin, Bailey, Elliott, Calhoun, Ogden and Davis, and revealed a chronic inflammation of the connective tissues between the stomach and liver which bound the upper part of the right kidney, the small end of the stomach, the transverse colon and under surface of the liver in one solid mass, occluding the circulation through the liver and the passage of the bile into the gall bladder. The gall bladder as a result was shrunken until it would barely admit the finger, and in the lower end of it a gall stone about the size of the lead from a 44 calibre cartridge was found. The condition caused the liver to be enlarged to about twice its normal size, and the spleen about four times as large as it should be.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

Garfield Adams, Frank Green, Frank Usler, Harry Moore and Hal Surles were given a hearing. Adams, Usler and Surles were released on $10 bail, while the others arranged to pay a fine of $5.60 each.

SOME OF THE CLAIMS

Wellsville People Have Against J. H. Baum.

MERCHANTS WHO WERE CAUGHT

They Gave Out Merchandise on Orders From the Pottery and Are Now Without the Money—Mortgages Have Appeared.

The announcement that James H. Baum had made an assignment caused no little excitement when it became generally known in Wellsville, where the greater number of unsecured claims are held.

It was not long until these claims were the talk of the town. The following are given: Mary Noss, $235, E. S. Kelly $25, M. Glazier $12.50, Julius Goetz $600, Cope Hardware company $600, E. H. Riggs $600, John Catlett $60, Miss Barth $400, G. B. Aten $100, T. B. Jack $300, J. F. Hamilton $200, William Bright $600, Newton Turner $60.

A number of those given are well known business men of Wellsville, who gave merchandise to employees of the Baum pottery on orders. Some of the workmen are also caught. It is understood that the Silver bank holds a mortgage, and another for $5,000 is in possession of W. G. McCullough.

BOARD OF IMPROVEMENTS

Talked Public Affairs For a Short Time.

The board of improvement met last evening with all members present except Mr. Cuthbert.

T. C. Forster presented a bid to operate a street railway from Pleasant Heights to the city at a fare of five cents. It was accompanied by a bond for $1,000 signed by T. C. Forster, C. C. Forster, D. E. McNicol, and Smith Fowler. Together with the ordinance granting the franchise it was recommended to council for action. An ordinance to improve Jefferson street and a resolution to improve Pine street also went to council for passage as did an ordinance to lay sidewalks on Lisbon street.

Clerk Hanly stated that he had a petition from property owners on College street asking that the street be paved. Mr. Stewart said he understood they had agreed to sign a waiver and finish the city's share of the improvement, but as the clerk had received nothing like this the matter was dropped, and the board adjourned.

IN WELLSVILLE

The Next Christian Union Convention Will Meet.

The young people who attended the Christian union convention at Scroggsfield returned today, bringing the intelligence that they had spent a delightful time. It was decided to hold the next convention in Wellsville.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Scott McBride, of Scroggsfield; vice presidents, J. A. Harvey, Bloomfield; Roy Herron, Carrollton; secretary, Miss Anna Moore, Wellsville; treasurer, Joseph Carey, Liverpool; executive committee, Rev. S. M. Barrackman, Salineville, Miss Madge Laughlin, Calcutta, Miss Sarah Albright, Steubenville, D. A. Reed, Liverpool, Miss Sadie Vanfossen, Mechanicstown.

The convention was attended by 150 delegates, and the social Monday evening was a pronounced success. Dinner and supper were served to the delegates on the lawn at the church yesterday. Among the best addresses given were those of Clarence Manor and John Hanley of this city.

Wellsville People Have Against J. H. Baum.

MERCHANTS WHO WERE CAUGHT

They Gave Out Merchandise on Orders From the Pottery and Are Now Without the Money—Mortgages Have Appeared.

The announcement that James H. Baum had made an assignment caused no little excitement when it became generally known in Wellsville, where the greater number of unsecured claims are held.

It was not long until these claims were the talk of the town. The following are given: Mary Noss, $235, E. S. Kelly $25, M. Glazier $12.50, Julius Goetz $600, Cope Hardware company $600, E. H. Riggs $600, John Catlett $60, Miss Barth $400, G. B. Aten $100, T. B. Jack $300, J. F. Hamilton $200, William Bright $600, Newton Turner $60.

A number of those given are well known business men of Wellsville, who gave merchandise to employees of the Baum pottery on orders. Some of the workmen are also caught. It is understood that the Silver bank holds a mortgage, and another for $5,000 is in possession of W. G. McCullough.

BOARD OF IMPROVEMENTS

Talked Public Affairs For a Short Time.

The board of improvement met last evening with all members present except Mr. Cuthbert.

T. C. Forster presented a bid to operate a street railway from Pleasant Heights to the city at a fare of five cents. It was accompanied by a bond for $1,000 signed by T. C. Forster, C. C. Forster, D. E. McNicol, and Smith Fowler. Together with the ordinance granting the franchise it was recommended to council for action. An ordinance to improve Jefferson street and a resolution to improve Pine street also went to council for passage as did an ordinance to lay sidewalks on Lisbon street.

Clerk Hanly stated that he had a petition from property owners on College street asking that the street be paved. Mr. Stewart said he understood they had agreed to sign a waiver and finish the city's share of the improvement, but as the clerk had received nothing like this the matter was dropped, and the board adjourned.

IN WELLSVILLE

The Next Christian Union Convention Will Meet.

The young people who attended the Christian union convention at Scroggsfield returned today, bringing the intelligence that they had spent a delightful time. It was decided to hold the next convention in Wellsville.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Scott McBride, of Scroggsfield; vice presidents, J. A. Harvey, Bloomfield; Roy Herron, Carrollton; secretary, Miss Anna Moore, Wellsville; treasurer, Joseph Carey, Liverpool; executive committee, Rev. S. M. Barrackman, Salineville, Miss Madge Laughlin, Calcutta, Miss Sarah Albright, Steubenville, D. A. Reed, Liverpool, Miss Sadie Vanfossen, Mechanicstown.

The convention was attended by 150 delegates, and the social Monday evening was a pronounced success. Dinner and supper were served to the delegates on the lawn at the church yesterday. Among the best addresses given were those of Clarence Manor and John Hanley of this city.

A BUGGY AND HARNESS STOLEN

It is Not Known That They Got Away
With a Horse Although the Vehicle is Said to Have Been Taken Into West Virginia—Done in Daylight.

Two robberies were reported to the police at a late hour yesterday afternoon, and although the force have been at work on a number of clues they have not yet succeeded in landing the guilty parties.

Edwin Oppelt, of 160 Fifth street, put his horses in the stable at noon, and when he returned a short time afterward he found that the traces of the harness had been stolen. A colored youth, who chanced to pass the stable at that time, stated that he had seen two reputable business men coming from the stable with parts of the harness in their possession. The men referred to are above reproach, and the police did not look upon the statement as a clue.

Later in the day Willard Morris reported that some one had stolen his buggy. It was purchased only a short time ago at a cost of $125. It was said that parties had seen the buggy go over the bridge in the early evening, but the name of the man who drove the horse attached to it is unknown.

AT THE LEAGUE MEETING

The Rovers Are Fighting Hard For a Place.

Joseph Stanaway and Earnest Farrell went to Pittsburg today to attend the meeting of the Association Football league as representatives of the Rovers. The league is made up of McDonald, Pittsburg Athletic club, East Pittsburg, Standard, Jeannette and Homestead, and the Rovers are anxious to join. If the others will not admit them the Rovers hope to arrange games for the season with the different clubs.

Affairs at the Library.

The directors of the public library have rearranged the lights in the reading room and the change is noticeable.

The attendance at the library is steadily increasing, and several new members have been taken in during the last three days.

WANTED HER MONEY.

Mrs. Knapp Called on Squire Hill For Advice.

Mrs. Knapp, who resides in a shanty boat, called on Squire Hill, last night, and wanted to know how she was to collect a bill for some clothes she had washed. She said she returned the clothes, and when a misunderstanding arose over the payment of the bill she attempted to retain the clothes, but the owner sat on the basket. She left the squire's office when assured that it would all come out right.

No Work at Akron.

A special from Akron says that the white ware pottery at that place is shut down because of a lack of coal. The plant has an abundance of orders, and will be in operation full time as soon as the management can buy coal.

Raised the Quarantine.

Sanitary Officer Burgess this morning lifted the quarantine from the residence of Joseph Webb, of West End. Several of his children were down with the diptheria but they have fully recovered and are able to be out.

Broke a Wheel.

One of the wheels of the ferry boat broke yesterday afternoon when the boat was running from the Virginia side. Engineer Brannan tied in, and the boat was started this morning after the necessary repairs were made.

Not at the Head.

Winnie Mercer no longer holds a place near the head of the list of league hitters, but is now rated twenty-eighth, with an average of .316. There are, however, but few better hitting pitchers in the league.

Fine Horses.

Harrison Rinehart returned from Pittsburg last evening. While there he purchased seven horses. The animals are fine specimens of horse flesh, and were sent to this city this morning.

A Meeting.

The sewer commission will hold its next regular meeting one week from next Saturday evening. Matters of importance will be attended to.

On the Pronunciation of Pepys.

The Hon. Walter Pepys has collected 17 varieties of the spelling of the name, and he lays some stress upon the French form Pepy as authority for the pronunciation favored by him. Peeps seems to follow the usual practice, as Weems for Wemys, and, moreover, it is that adopted by the descendants of the diarist's sister Paulina, the family of Pepys Cookerell. Peeps is also the traditional pronunciation adopted at Cambridge. Here is, I think, strong evidence in favor of Peeps. At the same time I believe that in this name, as in other words, the pronunciation of the vowel e has changed since the seventeenth century, and that the name in Pepys' own day was actually pronounced Papes. This opinion is grounded on the phonetic spelling Peaps and Peyps which have come down to us, and both these would represent Papes; ea—a, as in yea, break, great; ey—a, as in obey and they. In this matter, however, I have not the courage of my opinion, and I am not, therefore, prepared to adopt this pronunciation.—Notes and Queries.

Electro-magnetic Voice.

Professor W. E. Ayrtton of London stated recently that "there is no doubt the day will come, maybe when you and I are forgotten, when copper wires, gutta percha coverings and iron sheathings will be relegated to the museum of antiquities. Then, when a person wants to telegraph to a friend, he knows not where, he will call in an electro-magnetic voice, which will be heard loud by him who has the electro-magnetic ear, but will be silent to every one else. He will call, 'Where are you?' and the reply will come loud to the man with the electro-magnetic ear, 'I am at the bottom of the coal mine, or crossing the Andes, or in the middle of the Pacific.' Or, perhaps, no voice will come at all, and he may then expect the friend is dead. Think what that will mean. Think of the calling which goes on from room to room, then think of that calling when it extends from pole to pole—a calling quite audible to him who wants to hear, absolutely silent to him who does not."

Japanese Self Sacrifice.

On board the Matsushima one man, who had been shot in the abdomen and whose intestines were protruding from the gaping wounds, refused to be carried to the surgeon's ward, because, he said, he did not want to take any of the fighters from their work in order to carry him below. Another, after having had his body burned out of all recognition in attempting to extinguish a fire, stood by helping all he could till the flames were put out, when he died.

A third (mostly wounded) man, whose every gasp brought forth a gush of blood, would not close his eyes until he had told a comrade where the key of an important locker was and what the locker contained. A chief gunner, whose under jaw had been shot away and who could, of course, not utter a word, signed to a subordinate with a nod to take his place and fell dead after he had placed the handle of the gun lever in his subordinate's hand.—"Heroic Japan."

HERE AND THERE.

A powerful vein of gas has been struck at Weldon Springs, Ills.

At Osage, Kan., R. H. Lyons turned a waste pool on his farm into a fish pond ten years ago. Now he has a chain of fish ponds worth $15,000 on the place, all stocked from the waste pool.

A kettle supposed to have belonged to Daniel Boone has been dug up by a farmer near Bristol, Tenn.

HAVE A LITTLE LIST

Prohibitionists Are on the County Ticket.

MANY SIGNATURES SECURED

The Number Guarantees a Place, and Work Is Now Going on to Meet the Requirements For the State and Senatorial Contests—They Expect to Succeed.

People who prophesied after the last campaign that the Prohibition party would not be heard from again in this county are doomed to disappointment. The leaders of the party have not been idle, and for the last five months papers have been circulated among their friends until they have now secured the 300 names necessary before they can have a place on the county ticket. This is not all. Their share for the state ticket is 300 and for the senatorial ticket is 465. They have been hard at work securing names, and have almost enough to make up the apportionment, and fully expect to complete it in time to mail the list to Columbus before Saturday, Sept. 25.

A FINANCIAL SENSATION. Heavy Investments Being Made In a New Mining Company.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The financial sensation of the week has been the issue of the Joseph Ladue Gold Mining and Development company of Yukon, with offices at 20 Nassau street, this city. It is understood that this issue is being very heavily subscribed. The striking character of the company consists in the fact that the properties acquired embrace the holdings of Joseph Ladue, who is the pioneer of the Klondyke, the founder and owner of Dawson City, and who acquired a large amount of the most valuable gold mining property in the Klondyke district. The directory associated in this company is such as has never before been assembled in a mining enterprise, and embraces the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central railway; H. Walter Webb, W. J. Arkell, Hon. C. H. McIntosh, her majesty's lieutenant governor of the northwest territories, Eli A. Gage, son of the secretary of the treasury, and Gen. Thomas L. James, president of the Lincoln National bank. The company is formed with a capital of $5,000,000, and it is understood the subscription lists are likely to close inside of a fortnight. Mr. Ladue endured many hardships before striking his fortune. The properties he has acquired are worth many millions.

His Last Law Case. The late William S. Groesbeck of Cincinnati never took another law case after his defense of President Andrew Johnson. "The brilliant speech which won that case," says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, "proved the man's remarkable will and intellectual powers. He had been so ill as to be confined to his bed, and on the day of the trial, and while lying in bed, he jotted down on a sheet of foolscap paper the main points of his defense. He was driven to the tribunal in a carriage, unable to walk, and spoke extempore for four hours and a half. At the close of the trial he was voted upon and the president acquitted without the taking up of any of the other articles. Since that time Mr. Groesbeck had lived a life of quiet and retirement. In 1873 he built Elmhurst, a noble house of superb proportions, commanding a river view of unsurpassed beauty."

Oxygen and Mushrooms. A singular way of removing oxygen from the air by the aid of a plant is described by Dr. T. L. Phipson in The Chemical News. Inside a glass bell jar, suspended over water, is placed a mushroom, and sunlight is allowed to fall upon the plant. The mushroom absorbs the oxygen from the air in the jar, and the carbonic acid formed during the process is absorbed by the water, which gradually rises in the jar to one-fifth of its height. The mushroom now dries up, but its animation is only suspended, as may be proved by introducing beside it a green plant, when it will recommence to vegetate, being nourished by the oxygen exhaled from the fresh plant.

Sudermann's Drama Forbidden. In Berlin the police have forbidden the representation of Hermann Sudermann's new drama, "Saint John," alleging that subjects borrowed from the Old or the New Testament ought not to be put upon the stage. The management of the Deutsches theater says that it is taking steps to have this measure repealed. Meanwhile it has invited the dramatic critics of Berlin to a private meeting, where, upon hearing the play read by Sudermann himself, they may be able to judge of the reasons which could have influenced so rigorous a censure. The first representation of the drama was to take place in October.

TOMMY ATKINS' VANITY.

Curis His Bangs and Pads His Chest, So This Writer Avers.

"You'd hardly credit the vanity of some soldiers," said a sergeant major of the guards. "That perfect curl which you see on Tommy's forehead is more often than not the result of an hour's persuasion with hair oil and a pair of curling tongs. Nearly all soldiers are dandies in this way. They use expensive hair oils and pomades—very often 'curlers,' the same as those used by women.

"When they have oiled and brushed and brushed and oiled, the curling tongs put the final 'shape' on. Any soldier who is a clever curl maker—and who cares to do so—can earn a few shillings extra weekly by putting his services at the disposal of these fastidious young men.

"Tommy is not quite so particular over his boots, but very nearly so. The fastidious soldier does not demur at 1s. 6d. a pound for fresh butter, nor an occasional 2 shillings for a deer's bone, to 'tone down' the leather with.

"Most Tommies wrathfully declare that chest padding is a fabrication, but I can assure you that it is done. Cavalrymen in many crack regiments are much more vain than women. Their mustaches are trained, many of them use face powder, and so perfect and beautiful do their trousers fit that they dare not sit down or bend the body without extreme caution. To add a charm to their walk the steel rowels are taken out of their spurs and 'sawed' sixpences inserted instead, the result of which is a lively musical jingle."—London Answers.

Klondyke

The Land of Golden Nuggets.

JOSEPH LADUE,

the new Bonanza King of the Klondyke Gold Regions, gives the facts. His book reads like "The Arabian Nights," BUT Joseph Ladue KNOWS whereof he writes. He was the first man on the spot when the first gold was discovered last August, 1896. He located one rich claim and immediately purchased twelve others at a low price before their value was known. He has refused $100,000 for any ONE of these claims, as they are rich with virgin gold nuggets, beyond the dream of avarice. Joseph Ladue then at the mouth of the Klondyke and Yukon Rivers, by erecting the first house in the region in September, one month after the gold was first discovered. He bought 178 acres from the government on the city site where his town lots 150x50 are now selling for $5,000 each.

Mr. Ladue was fortunate enough to be successful in his trading post investments to have on hand ample capital to carry out his plans, and there is no man living who is better posted on Alaska and the great North West Territories than Mr. Joseph Ladue. He has just returned from that country to his old home in Schuler Falls, N. Y., where he passed a large portion of his boyhood and early manhood. Mr. Ladue left his home nearly twenty years ago to seek his fortune in the west going first to the Black Hills, where he was successful in gold mining, thence to Arizona and the Pacific coast and finally located in Alaska and the northwest, where he has covered almost the entire country since 1882. Mr. Ladue is a typical pioneer: strong, hardy and resolute—a man of iron as one must needs be to go through the hardships he has and come out with a constitution unbroken and unimpaired at about the age of 43. Mr. Ladue has not only worked his muscles to good advantage to himself with the result of an abundance of the world's goods, far beyond the dreams of men, but he has evidently all this time been closely observing the conditions of that strange country—the Yukon Valley—which has so suddenly become one of the great centers upon which human interest throughout the world is focussed.

When the wonderful stories began to come down from the Yukon country it was naturally concluded that it was at least half exaggeration. That any such amount of gold could be taken in so short a time from a country like that under the most most unfavorable conditions was held to be incredible. But when the great bags of virgin gold began to be poured out upon mint counters in San Francisco under the eyes of the whole world (for modern journalism does this, annihilating time and space) people began to wonder and the wonder grew day by day as the real facts were disclosed, and now people who are well informed as to the facts declare that half the truth has not been told of the golden treasures of the Yukon Valley.

As we have already said, there is no man today alive who knows more about this wonderful country than does Mr. Ladue. What makes his talk of it specially interesting and reliable is the fact that his knowledge of it is practical. It has not been gained from hearsay nor from desultory visits made now and then at certain favorable seasons of the year, but from steady living there through the long summer days and the long winter nights, year in and year out for 15 years, where he now owns the best mining claims on the Klondyke and its tributaries.

In presenting his book to the public we do so knowing that it is by an authority on the subject of which he writes. His first work entitled "Klondyke Nuggets"

is a brief description of the new gold regions, and anyone desiring authentic information should not fail to avail themselves of our

HAVE A LITTLE LIST

Prohibitionists Are on the County Ticket.

MANY SIGNATURES SECURED

The Number Guarantees a Place, and Work Is Now Going on to Meet the Requirements For the State and Senatorial Contests—They Expect to Succeed.

People who prophesied after the last campaign that the Prohibition party would not be heard from again in this county are doomed to disappointment. The leaders of the party have not been idle, and for the last five months papers have been circulated among their friends until they have now secured the 300 names necessary before they can have a place on the county ticket.

This is not all. Their share for the state ticket is 300 and for the senatorial ticket is 465. They have been hard at work securing names, and have almost enough to make up the apportionment, and fully expect to complete it in time to mail the list to Columbus before Saturday, Sept. 25.

A FINANCIAL SENSATION.

Heavy Investments Being Made In a New Mining Company.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The financial sensation of the week has been the issue of the Joseph Ladue Gold Mining and Development company of Yukon, with offices at 20 Nassau street, this city. It is understood that this issue is being very heavily subscribed. The striking character of the company consists in the fact that the properties acquired embrace the holdings of Joseph Ladue, who is the pioneer of the Klondyke, the founder and owner of Dawson City, and who acquired a large amount of the most valuable gold mining property in the Klondyke district. The directory associated in this company is such as has never before been assembled in a mining enterprise, and embraces the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central railway; H. Walter Webb, W. J. Arkell, Hon. C. H. McIntosh, her majesty's lieutenant governor of the northwest territories, Eli A. Gage, son of the secretary of the treasury, and Gen. Thomas L. James, president of the Lincoln National bank. The company is formed with a capital of $5,000,000, and it is understood the subscription lists are likely to close inside of a fortnight. Mr. Ladue endured many hardships before striking his fortune. The properties he has acquired are worth many millions.

His Last Law Case.

The late William S. Groesbeck of Cincinnati never took another law case after his defense of President Andrew Johnson. "The brilliant speech which won that case," says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, "proved the man's remarkable will and intellectual powers. He had been so ill as to be confined to his bed, and on the day of the trial, and while lying in bed, he jotted down on a sheet of foolscap paper the main points of his defense. He was driven to the tribunal in a carriage, unable to walk, and spoke extempore for four hours and a half. At the close article it was voted upon and the president acquitted without the taking up of any of the other articles. Since that time Mr. Groesbeck had lived a life of quiet and retirement. In 1872 he built Elmhurst, a noble house of superb proportions, commanding a river view of unsurpassed beauty."

Oxygen and Mushrooms.

A singular way of removing oxygen from the air by the aid of a plant is described by Dr. T. L. Phipson in The Chemical News. Inside a glass bell jar, suspended over water, is placed a mushroom, and sunlight is allowed to fall upon the plant. The mushroom absorbs the oxygen from the air in the jar, and the carbonic acid formed during the process is absorbed by the water, which gradually rises in the jar to one-fifth of its height. The mushroom now dries up, but its animation is only suspended, as may be proved by introducing beside it a green plant, when it will recommence to vegetate, being nourished by the oxygen exhaled from the fresh plant.

Sudermann's Drama Forbidden.

In Berlin the police have forbidden the representation of Hermann Sudermann's new drama, "Saint John," alleging that subjects forbidden by the Old or the New Testament ought not to be put upon the stage. The management of the Deutsches theater says that it is taking steps to have this measure repealed. Meanwhile it has invited the dramatic critics of Berlin to a private meeting, where, upon hearing the play read by Sudermann himself, they may be able to judge of the reasons which could have influenced so rigorous a censorship. The first representation of the drama was to take place in October.

TOMMY ATKINS' VANITY.

Curls His Bangs and Pads His Chest, So This Writer Avers.

"You'd hardly credit the vanity of some soldiers," said a sergeant major of the guards. "That perfect curl which you see on Tommy's forehead is more often than not the result of 'an hour's persuasion with hair oil and a pair of curling tongs. Nearly all soldiers are dandies in this way. They use expensive hair oils and pomades—very often 'curlers,' the same as those used by women."

"When they have oiled and brushed and brushed and oiled, the curling tongs put the final 'shape' on. Any soldier who is a clever curl maker—and who cares to do so—can earn a few shillings extra weekly by putting his services at the disposal of these fastidious young men."

"Tommy is not quite so particular over his boots, but very nearly so. The fastidious soldier does not demur at 1s. 6d. a pound for fresh butter, nor an occasional 2 shillings for a deer's bone, to 'tone down' the leather with."

"Most Tommies wrathfully declare that chest padding is a fabrication, but I can assure you that it is done. Cavalrymen in many crack regiments are much more vain than women. Their mustaches are trained, many of them use face powder, and so perfect and beautiful do their trousers fit that they dare not sit down or bend the body without extreme caution. To add a charm to their walk the steel rowels are taken out of their spurs and 'sawed' sixpences inserted instead, the result of which is a lively musical jingle."—London Answers.
